Dear children,

Mathematics is necessary to know and understand the things accurately around us. Mathematics deals with counting, adding, subtracting, drawing and measuring. These are done using numbers, shapes and symbols. The ability to think, understand and express things correctly is acquired through mathematics.

Let's start learning math in a fun way by doing group activities, watching, listening, thinking and discussing. We can be friendly with math through games, telling stories, singing songs, drawing colourful pictures, colouring and finding different ways of thinking.

Thithiri and Friends

A cat tiptoed in, to catch the little bird.

Amal got a stick and chased the cat away.

They searched for Thithiri everywhere.

Not on the almirah.

Not under the bed.

Not in front of the sofa.

Not behind
the sofa.

Couldn't find her anywhere outside.

Who all do you see in the pictures?
Count and write each.

Ima and Amal showed their picture book to Thithiri.
They sang.

What's in page one?
One cat on the first page!
One, one 1

What's in page two?
Two birds on the second page!
Two, two, 2

What's in page three?
Three parrots on the third page!
Three, three 3

What's in page four?
Four owls on the fourth page!
Four, four 4

What's in page five?
Five mangoes on the fifth page!
Five, five 5

Look and Tell.

See the picture. Say what all things you see?

In the flock

See the picture. Say and write.

In front of the mother duck little ducks

At her back little ducks

2 and 3 make 5

2 ducklings walked ahead to get beside their mother's side. One was still behind.

ducklings in front, ducklings alongside duckling behind.

and and 1 and make

The 2 ducklings with the mother walked ahead.

ducklings in front, ducklings behind.

and 1 make

Amal, Ima and Thithiri reached the garden.

Count and write.

Let's sing a song...

One shoe flower
Pretty and red

Two marigolds
Orange coloured

Three mukkoottis
Golden yellow

Four blue peas
So beautiful

Five white lilies
On the pond

Friends

Ryan and Avani came to see Thithiri.

He caressed Thithiri.

"So smooth", he said.

Feel and Write.

How do we write 1?

There's a song for it.

How do we write one?
This is how we write one
No curve, no turn
No slant, no bent
A little line
Short and straight
That's a nice one
All for one
One for all

One

4

5

To write 2, just feel this picture.

Ryan moved his finger on the sand
paper card.

Okay, Ima!
I got it now.

My dear...

They heard a bird crying outside.
They went to the garden.

Here's your mom!

Mommie!

Let's colour.

1

2

3

4

Count the birds and give the same colour as in the number box.

Birds of which colour are the most?

How many?

Write these numbers from the largest to the smallest.

3

Walk... Walk... and Walk...

What all things do we see in the picture?

How many butterflies?

How many flowers?

Three of the flowers seem happier.
Can you guess why?

Minnu and Kittu started walking through the woods.

Minnu and Kittu opened the bag and looked inside.

How many inside?

How many outside?

Colour these hats.

Kunjan squirrel and Pinky monkey took some hats and climbed up.

Zero means there's nothing.

How many hats?

Squirrel

Rabbit

Monkey

Deer

How many hats in the bag now?

Nothing

Zero.

Sing and Write.

How many mangoes?

The tree in the yard had five mangoes

5

A squirrel bit off one

How many left on the tree?

The wind shook down one

How many left on the tree?

A crow pecked off one

How many left on the tree?

Ammu stoned down one

How many left on the tree?

Appu plucked off one

How many left on the tree?

Nothing left on the tree now

And nothing, you know, is zero!

0

No hats in the bag. Zero
Ramunni Uncle was very sad.

Draw and join.

Pinky gave back three hats and Kittu rabbit gave back two.

How many he has now?

After getting back one more hat, how many he has now?
Five and one make six.
6 hats.

6

Now the number of hats is six and one, which is seven.

7 hats.

Now, Ramunni Uncle is very happy.

The four of them went off together.

Who is in front of Minnu? Put a tick mark ✓

Who is behind Minnu? Draw a smiley 😊

All are hungry.

Look, mangoes!
Who'll climb up?

I'll peck at them.

Little bird did so and all mangoes fell down.

Each of them ate one.

How many left?

Say how you found out?

Connect...and count.

The rabbit was happy to see carrots on the wayside.

I took the largest bunch

The same number for me and my brother.

I need only the small bunch.

Join the bunch the squirrel and deer took.
Write the numbers too.

They walked and walked...
And reached a pond.

Wow! so beautiful.

Let's stop for a while.

What all did they see? Count and write.

Which one is the largest?

How many?

Write the numbers from the smallest to the largest.

--	--	--	--	--	--

Little birds

How many little birds are there? 8

Now the little bird is with her mother.

Now there are nine little birds.
And all 9 are happy.

Write in order.

All are back

Look!
Here's a mobile phone.

Must be the hat seller's.

Unlock the mobile phone.

The numbers they pressed glowed yellow.

Who unlocked the phone?

Write the numbers in order.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

There is another number on the phone.

What is it?

Look at the photo.

The hat seller got his phone back.
See the photo Ramunni Uncle took.

How many are there in the photo?

Tick (✓) the correct answer.

There are 4 animals with 4 legs.

True

False

Those who can fly are more.

True

False

The butterfly and parrot are above others.

True

False

Someone is hiding in the tree.
Join the dots from 1 to 9 in order and colour.

Write the numbers in order.

9

One more

Colour all the flowers yellow or red. Red flowers must be one more than the yellow flowers.

Give colour to four mangoes.

How many are coloured? How many colourless?

Put five rabbits in a cage.

How many are inside? How many outside?

Put two balls in a box.

How many are inside? How many outside?

Put three butterflies in a circle.

How many are inside? How many outside?
